THE TRIAL EIGHTS

From OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

CAMBRIDGE, Monday.

T. A. Brocklebank (Eton and Third Trinity), president of the C.U.B.C., announced to-day that arrangements had been made with the O.U.B.C. to contest the next University boat race on March 21. This is a week after the end of full term at Cambridge and unusually early. It will mean that the composition of the crews will have to be decided at an early date.

Three trial eights crews were afloat to-day. T. A. Brocklebank, P. N. Carpmael, and Sir Henry Howard were in charge. Many light fours candidates were included, and while R. B. F. Wylie (Clare) retained his seat as stroke of "A" crew, G. P. Eastern, who stroked the Lady Margaret second four, led "B" crew, and F. J. Connell, who stroked the Lady Margaret crew in the final heat of the fours, rowed at stroke in "C" crew.

Tubpair and fixed tub instruction was given and the three crews paddled down to Baitsbite and back during the afternoon. M. H. Varriner, last year's president, visited the boat yard during practice. Order of rowing and weights:

CAMBRIDGE TRIAL EIGHTS

Fine weather continues to favour the work of the Trial Eights at Cambridge, and yesterday the three crews were called upon to row up Long Reach independently on their upstream journey from Baitsbite Locks. Conditions were favourable and there was hardly any wind.

The Secretary's crew went over the course first, followed by the President's eight, and Sir Henry Howard's boat was the last to row. No times were returned for the work, which was of an even character, there being very little to choose between the crews. Some changes were made in the order of rowing, and the newcomers were all accommodated in the four bow thwarts of B crew. The strokes were unchanged.

Order of rowing and weights:

LEVELLING UP CREWS

After the lock-to-lock trial at the end of the week an attempt was made yesterday at Cambridge to level up the three crews now in training. Only two fresh oarsmen were tried, but many alterations were made in seating the remaining oarsmen.

The three strokes were retained but changed boats, Connell (Lady Margaret) going from O to A, Dodd (Emmanuel) from A to B, and Wylie (Clare) from B to C. The newcomers were Shepherd and Reed, bow and stroke respectively in the second Jesus light four.

TWO CHANGES IN "C" CREW

Only a few changes were made in the Trial Eights at Cambridge yesterday, two fresh oarsmen being introduced and one change over being made. The change was that of M. A. Belleville, who rowed 4 in the Jesus head of the river crew, but has been tried on the bow side in the Trial Eight. He reverted to his usual place at 4 during practice yesterday, taking the place of Baron J. F. Derutzen (Trinity Hall) in "C" crew.

The newcomers are E. P. Kenrick (First Trinity), the bow oar in both the First Trinity May Eight and Light Four, who came in at bow in "B" crew, and E. W. R. Guymer (Queen's), who went to 3 in "C" crew.

The work yesterday included a long stretch of rowing during the upstream journey, after paddling down to Baitsbite Lock in easy stages. The crews were in charge of the president, T. A. Brocklebank; the secretary, P. N. Carpmael, and Sir Henry Howard. A. S. Reeve (Selwyn), the old Blue who rowed 7 in this year's Cambridge crew, was present to watch the practice. CAMBRIDGE TRIAL EIGHTS

Three trial eights went out at Cambridge yesterday in practically unchanged order, the only alteration being at seven in "C" crew, where Clay, of Trinity Hall, took the place of Karney, of First Trinity. Both of these oarsmen were engaged in the fours last week, and both rowed at three.

Tubbing exercise was taken for about an hour under the tuition of the three coaches—T. A. Brocklebank, P. N. Carpmael, and Sir Henry Howard. Later the eights made their customary journey to Baitsbite Locks and back in easy stages. Mr. T. R. B. Sanders, the old Blue and treasurer of the C.U.B.C., accompanied the coaches on the towing path. Three crews will practice daily until the lock-to-lock trial is rowed next week. Order of rowing and weights:

"A" CREW.—H. L. Kitching (Emmanuel) (bow) 11st. D. M. Lubbock (Third Trinity) 12st. C. G. B. Palmer (Jesus) 12st-3. J. L. Moore (Lady Margaret) 12st-13. G. C. Wansey (Selwyn) 12st-13. R. R. B. CAMBRIDGE TRIAL EIGHTS

Three Cambridge University trial eights were afloat yesterday. They paddled down to Baitsbite Locks and back in easy stages, with one or two short bursts of rowing. Some changes were made in the composition of the crews, but all three strokes retained their seats.

Apart from moving some of the oarsmen from one boat to another, only four fresh candidates were brought in. They were A. W. Anstey (Jesus) at bow in "A" crew; E. H. Schupbach (Lady Margaret) at 3 in "B" crew; and O. Issard-Davies (Corpus Christi) at 2, and Baron J. F. de Rutzen (Trinity Hall) at 4 in "C" crew.

T. A. Brocklebank and P. N. Carpmael were assisted in the coaching by H. P. N. Rickett, a Blue, as Sir Henry Howard was prevented from being present. Order of rowing and weights:

CAMBRIDGE, Saturday.

The three University trial eights rowed the Bridge-to-Bridge course, a distance of about 1½ mile, here to-day, during the return journey from Baitsbite Locks. The time, under nine minutes, was satisfactory in view of the head wind in Long Reach.
