A LOCK-TO-LOCK RECORD

CAMBRIDGE "A" CREW'S FINE ROW

Cambridge University's lock-to-lock trial at Cambridge tended to explode pre-conceived ideas about the capabilities of some of the oarsmen; when the final selection for the trial eights is made there may be some surprises.

Candidates from the larger clubs showed up better on the whole, Pembroke and Jesus in particular. The former provided two useful strokes in Luxton, who led "A" crew, which set up a new record for the lock-to-lock course, and J. R. F. Best, in "C" crew, who took his men along in a very lively fashion, and, rowing a splendid length, finished up at 37 to the minute.

"D" crew were unfortunate in that their regular stroke, H. N. H. Lander, First Trinity, was unable to row owing to illness, and it is not surprising that F. J. Connell, Lady Margaret, who was called in at the last minute, was unable to get the best out of them. "B" crew were frankly disappointing, rowing without any life for the greater part of the way. The times were:
