

This is the last Will and Testament of me Joseph Raymond Wausey, commonly known as Joseph Christopher Wausey of The Rectory, Flixton, Manchester in the County of Lancaster made this Twenty Seventh day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and Forty Two.

I hereby revoke all Wills by me at any time heretofore made. I appoint to be my Executrix, and direct that all my just Debts and Funeral and Testamentary Expenses shall be paid as soon as conveniently may be after my decease.

Olive Washburn Wausey

I give and bequeath unto

Olive, my wife, all my possessions, absolutely.
J.R. Wausey.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand the day and year first above written.

Against any alteration or interlineation made before the Will is executed, the Testator or Testatrix and the Witnesses must sign their names: nothing should be scratched out, or erased, or the Will might be held incapable of proof.

To be struck out if it is necessary to use next page.

Signed by the Testator in the presence of us, present at the same time, who at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as Witnesses ...

1st WITNESS—Name G. D. Oakley

Address The Vicarage

Occupation Vicar of Walthamstow

2nd WITNESS—Name Peter R. Wausey

Address Another Vicarage

Occupation Clerk in Holy Orders

N.B.—The person making the Will should sign it at the end of the Will itself, that is, immediately at the end of the writing.
